THE HEADLINER

Cultural Events a Part of Anti-Racism Effort

What to know: Principal Ms. Amatrudo sees the cultural celebrations, like October's Hispanic heritage event, as part of a larger push for inclusivity that also includes the "No Place for Hate" program and more diverse classes and resources.

Up next: Administrators plan to hold multiple cultural events this year, including a Black history celebration and a Lunar New Year event. Ms. Amatrudo also suggested a possible "personal identity day," where "everyone comes and gets to share a little piece of themselves."

Yes, but: Last year, a tentative date for a Black history event was announced in the PTO Digest newsletter. The event was ultimately cancelled in the aftermath of what admin described as "two related physical altercations." To stay on track for this year, the school plans to rely more heavily on student leaders.

FROM THE BOOK REPORT

Mr. Felty on Seveneves

"I absolutely think people should read this if they are looking for a science fiction book. It helped inspire me to read more and reminded me of how enjoyable books can be. It's a great book to take you out of a reading slump!"

SNAPSHOT

On October 18, MSMHS held a celebration of Hispanic food, language, and culture to mark final week of Hispanic Heritage Month. Students had the opportunity to participate in a variety of activities, including face painting.

The day ended with a play put on by students in Spanish language classes, with lines primarily in Spanish.
